SECRET COMMISSIONS

Secret commissions typically arise where there is a payment or benefit given or offered to an agent or representative of a third party, which is not disclosed to the third party. Secret commissions are intended to influence or impact the conduct of the third party's business.

Payment of, soliciting or receiving secret commissions by the Group and Redivium Personnel are prohibited.

- > be of reasonable value and appropriate nature having regard to cultural considerations and general business practice;

The Company's practise is to not support any political party with a direct or indirect donation.

Redivium Personnel must obtain the prior approval of the Chief Financial Officer, the Company Secretary or the Executive Officer to attend dinners, conferences or similar events organised by a political party or equivalent organisation.

The Company may make charitable donations and community investments, and provide sponsorships, which comply with the legal and ethical requirements of the jurisdiction in which the charitable donation, community investment or sponsorship is made. In Australia, charitable donations will only be made to organisations with deductible gift recipient status with the Australian Taxation Office unless the Chief Financial Officer has approved otherwise.
